

What is an Orthodox Presbyterian Church, Part 3:
What does it mean to be Presbyterian?
Acts 20:17-28

Intro

I. Elders are to care for the flock...

Elders are men who have been ordained and appointed to lead the congregation.

The Holy Spirit gives elders the responsibility of overseeing the flock.

Jesus is the Head of the Church, and under him each congregation should have a plurality of elders.

II. Which Christ purchased with His own blood.

An elder is supposed to be among the people with humility and boldness, giving his life for the church.

Jesus is the ultimate elder—the Good Shepherd Who laid down His life for the sheep.
