

Understanding the Book of Daniel
Daniel 7:1-14 (p.944)

Intro

I. God _____ over the kingdoms of this world...

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the matter. v.1.

We can serve the Lord _____ even in less-than-ideal circumstances, in a fallen world, under a _____ government.

Daniel declared, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. v.2,3

In one sense, the "_____" is constantly changing; politics are constantly changing, yet some things remain the _____.

These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. v.17

The kingdoms of this world are _____—they all fall short of what _____ is supposed to be.

The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' After this I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. v.4-6

Some kingdoms and some governments are _____ than others, and at times we can be understandably _____.

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. v.7,8

"As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was anxious, and the visions of my head alarmed me. v.15

"As I looked, thrones were placed, and the Ancient of Days took his seat; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames; its wheels were burning fire. A stream of fire issued and came out from before him; a thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the court sat in judgment, and the books were opened. v.9,10

II. And is building _____ kingdom that will last forever.

“I looked then because of the sound of the great words that the horn was speaking. And as I looked, the beast was killed, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire. As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. v.11,12

In God’s time, the kingdoms of this world will _____ away as the kingdom of Jesus Christ is established as an _____ kingdom.

“I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. v.13,14

Daniel foresaw the ascension, _____, and coronation of Christ as king; He is now _____ forever and ever.

The kingdoms of this _____ will come and go, but the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ shall _____ forever.

One day all the nations will _____ to Him: _____ and encourage yourself with this thought! No one can _____ the kingdom away from you.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you. For kingship belongs to the Lord, and he rules over the nations. (Ps. 22:27,28)

God has highly exalted him... so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.... (Phil. 2:9-11)

“As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was anxious, and the visions of my head alarmed me. I approached one of those who stood there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of the things. ‘These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever.’ v.15-18

There will be _____ setbacks, times of suffering, and momentary defeats until we _____ with Christ forever.

... As I looked, this horn made war with the saints and prevailed over them, until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom... He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High...and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; his kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.’ v.21-27

Pray, _____ your sins and the sins of God's people, and claim the promises of God; the Lord will forgive and give you _____.

In the first year of Darius... I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years that, according to the word of the Lord to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the end of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years. Then I turned my face to the Lord God... I prayed to the Lord my God and made confession.... (9:1-4)

I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen... His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches.... no strength was left in me.... I fell on my face in deep sleep with my face to the ground. And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.... Again one having the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. (10:4b-12,18)

The Lord will send His _____ to fight for you and for His kingdom; be patient, _____ in the Lord, and wait upon Him.

"At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been.... But at that time your people shall be delivered... And someone said... "How long shall it be...?He said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.... Blessed is he who waits... go your way till the end. And you shall rest and shall stand in your allotted place at the end of the days." (12:5-10,13)

I. God rules over the kingdoms of this world...

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the matter. v.1.

We can serve the Lord faithfully even in less-than-ideal circumstances, in a fallen world, under a pagan government.

Daniel declared, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. v.2,3

In one sense, the "news" is constantly changing; politics are constantly changing, yet some things remain the same.

These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. v.17

The kingdoms of this world are beastly—they all fall short of what mankind is supposed to be.

The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' After this I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. v.4-6

Some kingdoms and some governments are worse than others, and at times we can be understandably upset.

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. The kingdoms of this world will come and go, but the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ shall continue forever.

One day all the nations will bow to Him: comfort and encourage yourself with this thought! No one can take the kingdom away from you.
