

Understanding Paul's Letter to the Philippians
Philippians 3:4b-11 (p.1249)

Intro

Many, many, many different people _____ Christ risen from the dead, and their lives were completely _____ by it; how can _____ be changed by it?

I. You can experience the _____ of the resurrection....

_____ in yourself, in your accomplishments, and in your own good deeds is a terrible _____ to experiencing the power of the resurrection.

If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. v.4-8

You have to be _____ to give up everything you have in order to have Jesus; everything in this world is a potential _____ to knowing Christ.

The good is the enemy of the _____; sometimes _____ things keep us from pursuing the best things.

...I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him...v.8,9

Knowing Jesus Christ personally is the summum bonum—the _____ good—the highest possible goal in life, and it is only possible through _____ in Him.

...not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— v.9

The only way to be right with God is to trust in _____ righteousness; the only way to know Jesus _____ is to trust in Him instead of in yourself.

II. By _____ alone in Jesus Christ alone.

the righteousness from God that depends on faith—that I may know him and the power of his resurrection...v.9,10

You can experience the life-changing power of Christ's resurrection _____ by trusting in Him alone, but it will cost you _____.

Salvation is a _____ gift that will cost you dearly, because Christ's resurrection power will make you more like Jesus, who gave up _____.

For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom. 6:23)

it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (Eph. 2:8)

For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish.... that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death...v8,10

Those who spend time with Jesus will be _____ by Jesus; the resurrected Christ has an irresistible, inevitable, and indelible _____ on those who know Him.

An encounter with the risen Christ changes _____! When you encounter the risen Lord, you will be changed; the risen Christ makes people _____!

Jesus Christ gave up everything to save us—He _____ and died on the cross to pay for our sins—and His resurrection power/ _____ makes us more like Him.

Knowing Jesus Christ is going to make you more _____ and more self-sacrificial; His resurrection power will make you more like _____.

For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:28,33)

Knowing Jesus Christ by faith means that you _____ His life-changing, character-transforming resurrection power _____ and when He comes again.

...that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. v.11

Understanding Paul's Letter to the Philippians
Philippians 3:4b-11 (p.1249)

Intro

Many, many, many different people witnessed Christ risen from the dead, and their lives were completely changed by it; how can you be changed by it?

I. You can experience the power of the resurrection....

Trust in yourself, in your accomplishments, and in your own good deeds is a terrible hindrance to experiencing the power of the resurrection.

If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. v.4-8

You have to be willing to give up everything you have in order to have Jesus; everything in this world is a potential obstacle to knowing Christ.

The good is the enemy of the best; sometimes good things keep us from pursuing the best things.

...I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him...v.8,9

Knowing Jesus Christ personally is the summum bonum—the greatest good--the highest possible goal in life, and it is only possible through faith in Him.

...not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— v.9

The only way to be right with God is to trust in Christ's righteousness; the only way to know Jesus personally is to trust in Him instead of in yourself.

II. By faith alone in Jesus Christ alone.

the righteousness from God that depends on faith—that I may know him and the power of his resurrection...v.9,10

You can experience the life-changing power of Christ's resurrection only by trusting in Him alone, but it will cost you dearly.

Salvation is a free gift that will cost you dearly, because Christ's resurrection power will make you more like Jesus, who gave up everything.

For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom. 6:23)

it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (Eph. 2:8)

For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish.... that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death...v8,10

Those who spend time with Jesus will be changed by Jesus; the resurrected Christ has an irresistible, inevitable, and indelible effect on those who know Him.

An encounter with the risen Christ changes everything! When you encounter the risen Lord, you will be changed; the risen Christ makes people Christians!

Jesus Christ gave up everything to save us—He suffered and died on the cross to pay for our sins—and His resurrection power/presence makes us more like Him.

Knowing Jesus Christ is going to make you more unselfish and more self-sacrificial; His resurrection power will make you more like Him.

For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:28,33)

Knowing Jesus Christ by faith means that you experience His life-changing, character-transforming resurrection power now and when He comes again.

...that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. v.11